

Male Anatomy Crossword

Down:

1. grape-like structure; secretes a significant portion of the fluid that becomes semen
2. close proximity to the junction between the bladder and pelvic urethra
3. paired muscles that clamps on ischium and reduces bloodflow
4. provides the gel fraction
5. paired muscles that maintains the sigmoid flexure in a fibroelastic penis
7. sperm are produced here
8. cavernous tissue and connective tissue sheath the tunica albuginea
12. composed of connective tissue
16. spongy erectile tissue surrounding the penile urethra
18. outside of the urethralis muscle

Across:

6. responsible for transport of sperm during ejaculation
9. sperm are stored here
10. sperm gain motility here
11. glandular tissue; lateral and dorsal walls of the pelvic urethra
13. testicular vein that intertwines around the testicular artery
14. composed of mostly erectile tissue
15. striated muscle supporting the testis
17. a single muscle that functions to empty the extra-pelvic part of the urethra

Down:

19. sperm are not motile here

Across: